MAJOR YOUNG

Systematic Move to Secure His Nomination.

URGED AS IDEAL CANDIDATE

ROBERT W. SLOAN TAKES AC-TIVE PART IN MOVEMENT.

Major Richard W. Young for governor of Utah is the slogan that has been taken up by many Democrats over the state. The fact that Major Young has said time and again that he does not desire the population does not satisfy.

quiet but effective canvass of the state has been going on in the interest of Major Young for some time past, and that the movement was meeting with success. The matter is being presented to party leaders in all parts of the state, and a plea is being made in favor of the major's nomination in the interest of all the people of the state, as well as the interests of the Democratic Sloan Writing Letters.

Prominent among those who have taken up this work is R. W. Sloan of Salt Lake. In order to get an expression of the views of party leaders, Mr. Sloan sent out a number of letters to active and influential Democrats urging them that if their ideas coincided with his—that Major Young's nomination would be a wise one, all things considered—to write the major and urge him to lead his party in the contest this fall. This is not being done to injure any other aspirant for the nomination, but other aspirant for the nomination, but speaks of the grave labor problems that are liable to come before the chief executive, and urges the application of Democratic principles to the solution of these problems. Of the governor the letter says:

"He should be a man who will appeal

"He should be a man who will appeal to the people of the state generally as possessing high courage, reputation unassailable, a strong sense of public and private honor, cool judgment, deliberation and decision. He should have such a knowledge of the citizens of our commonwealth and their aspirations as will inspire confidence in any course he may doem it prudent to pursue. In view of the labor troubles that have afflicted neighboring states, together with the mutterings here, and the religious agitation now affecting Utah (the out-come of which may, in its ultimate ef-fect, prove of the most disastroup pamost earnestly to be desired."

Major Young's Qualifications. After speaking in high terms of both J. H. Moyle and W. M. Roylance, whose friends are urging them for the nomination for governor, the letter says of Major Young's peculiar fitness for the office at this time:

"That Major Young will make an ideal candidate goes without question. His character is above reproach. He tiles and Mormons alike; and he has, as I view it, all the qualifications stated by me as necessary to a governor who is to meet the crises which, if not impending, it is at least the part of wisdom to watch and guard against. He is a least the part of wisdom to watch and guard against. He is a least the part of wisdom to watch and guard against.

REAL ESTATE MEN WORK

FOR GOVERNOR Will Meet Today to Select a Secretary and Arrange For Information Bureau.

The regular meeting of the Salt Lake Real Estate association will be held this afternoon at the Commercial club at 1 o'clock and a secretary is to be selected to take charge of the information bureau. J. J. Duke, C. H. Stevenson and D. A. Froiseth have made applications for the position, and these cames will be presented to the association today.

Further schemes for advertising Salt ake will be considered at the meeting, but so far no plans have been formu-lated by the committee and the mat-ter will be thrown open to discussion. The committee has already drawn up desire the nomination does not satisfy his admirers, who feel that if the nomination should go to him without any effort on his part; that if the convention should place the standard of the Utah Democracy in his hands, he would step to the front and carry the standard to victory.

It became known yesterday that a quiet but effective canvass of the state. These booklets will be ready by the first part of September, when the information bureau opens, but the advertising schemes to be dis-
